FOR MISS HEINBERG OF BIRMINGHAM.

Mrs. J. Gugenheim's and Mrs. D. Danheiser's dance for Miss Sara Heinberg of Birmingham, Ala., young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Heinberg of that city but formerly of Pensacola, was one of the swiftest affairs yet given for the numerous attractive guests of local Jewish society.

The beautiful affair was given at the residence of Mrs. Danheiser which was simply but handsomely decorated with palms and ferns in the two parlors which were cleared and thrown together for the ball.

The library and dining room were also thrown into one and there a pretty color scheme of pink and white brightened the background of greenery and lent zest to the delicious refreshments served throughout the evening including a huge bowl of punch presided over by Miss Jeanette Israel.

As the affair was in honor of Miss Heinberg's birthday she was the re-

BRYSON—HILL.

At high noon yesterday at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hill, on North Adams street, a very pretty home wedding was solemnized, the contracting parties being Miss Mary Alberta Hill and Mr. Thomas Jackson Bryson, of New Orleans.

The parlors and halls had been artistically decorated with evergreens, ferns and flowers, and formed an appropriate setting for the celebration of the interesting event. At the appointed hour, the bridal procession entered. The way was led by Miss Gertrude Surles, of Georgetown, Ga., bridesmaid, and Mr. H. D. Hill, of Lake Providence, La., groomsmen. Then followed Mrs. L. J. Cotton, sister of the bride, matron of honor. Next came the groom and his best man, Mr. R. C. Lewis, of Hartford, Conn., and last the bride, with her maid of honor, Miss Petrea Thiesen, of Pensacola, Fla.

The bridal party was met by Rev. W. H. Huntley, presiding elder of the Vicksburg district, who officiated. The bride wore a handsome gown away gown of Magnolia leaf green chiffon tulle, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a graceful bouquet of bride's roses and ferns. Miss Thiesen, a beautiful blonde, was exquisitely gowned in white eolienne, garnished with chiffon and lace. A creation in violet silk, landowne, lace-trimmed, enhanced the dainty beauty of Mrs. Cotton, matron of honor, while Miss Surles, who is a handsome brunette, wore a pretty white silk toilette, with accessories of violet satin. The attendants wore white picture hats and carried white gauze fans, tied with large bows of white chiffon.

There was no wedding breakfast after the ceremony, but on the evening previous an informal reception was held with friends as guests, at which a dainty two course luncheon was served. The color scheme of violet and white was prettily carried out in the dining room. From the chandelier above the table were suspended large bunches of violets and broad-white chiffon streamers, which were caught at the four corners of the table by other bunches of the same blossoms, and the laces which were served were white with candied violets.

Miss Hill is a very charming young lady, loved by all who know her for her many graces of mind and disposition, and Mr. Bryson is a young man of most excellent character, fine business ability and enjoys the admiration and respect of his many acquaintances both here and in New Orleans.

The popularity of the young couple was attested to by the number of handsome and beautiful presents they received.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryson left at 1 p. m. for the Gulf coast, where they will spend the honeymoon, after which they will reside in Hattiesburg, Miss.—Vicksburg (Miss.) American.

Members of the Pensacola Library Association are requested to attend a meeting Tuesday evening at 5:30 in Library Hall.
